MADGE REJECTED 7 REAL ORPHANS

POP queen Madonna turned down SEVEN genuine orphans in favour of baby David.

Staff at the Home for Hope orphanage have revealed that the Malawi government drew up a shortlist of 12 kids for Madonna, 48, and husband Guy

by LISA MCCARTHY

Ritchie, 38, to choose from - but little David was not on the list.

Spokeswoman Lucy Chipeta said she even tried to stop the adoption, as she was worried about the baby being separated from his real dad.

Miss Chipeta said: "Of course, this was a chance for David, but he had a parent. There are other desperate children and we would have loved Madonna to take one of them."

She also rubbished the star's claims that David's dad Yohane Banda, 32, never visited, saying the onion farmer cycled 36km to see his son each week. A spokesman for Madonna was unavailable last night.

A 'replacement' for baby David

PLANS: Yohane

LITTLE David's real father is planning to wed again. And Yohane Banda, 32, wants to have another child with his new bride... to REPLACE baby David.

Yohane is to marry Flora Kamanga, 22, who he met during his regular visits to David's orphanage.

He said the couple have been dating for six months and are thinking about having a child, "possibly as a replacement for David".

Ladies on top in book battle

by DEAN VALLER

GLAMOUR girl Kate Price and ex-Doctor Who babe Billie Piper have wiped the floor with some of the biggest celebrity autobiographies.

Books by the likes of David Blunkett, 59, and Wayne Rooney were supposed to leap off the shelves this summer – but have flopped spectacularly.

Experts blame it on too many celebrity books competing for limited shelf space.

While Liverpool skipper Steven Gerrard's book Gerrard has sold 90,000 copies, England and Manchester United star Rooney, 21 – who signed a five-book, £4million deal – sold just 35,000 copies of his first outing My Story So Far.

In comparison, I'm A Celebrity star Kate, 28, shifted 900,000 copies of her two-part celebrity memoir Being Jordan, which was rejected by a host of publishers and bought by John Blake for just £10,000.

David Wilson is editorial director of Headline, which published 25-year-old Chelsea and England defender Ashley Cole's flop book My Defence.

He said: "The problem is over-publishing. Books are not getting the shelf space in the shops."

Tough

"There are just too many celebrity books out there – and a lot of the major sports memoirs are basically celebrity books too. A few rise to the top but you can never predict which they will be."

To earn back a £1million advance, publishers need to sell at least 300,000

NO JOY: Rooney and Ashley Cole

copies of a £20 hardback. But many publishers can take comfort from the amount of serious cash they will rake in from selling the serialisation rights to major books to newspapers.

Publishing commentator Danuta Kean said: "Publishers may make some dodgy judgements but they can do the maths and know how to operate in a tough market."

NOEL'S
FOOTIE
WEDDING

CITY PARTY: Sara and Noel

Blue bash for lovely Sara

EXCLUSIVE

IT'S been one of the best weeks of Noel Gallagher's career.

And it looks like things are only going to get better for the Oasis star now he's planning to get wed.

The thrilling seven days included winning the title of Best Act In The World Today at the Q Awards.

Now the beautiful Sara McDonald, 31, has said she'll marry the mono-browed icon next year.

Our spies tell us that she's even agreed to a boozy party at the City of Manchester stadium so that the devoted Blue can show his true colours.

But the pair will say I do and enjoy their reception at the top of the city's Urbis museum, which boasts marvellous views of Manchester's skyline.

Fan

The couple will exchange their vows before heading to Manchester City's ground for a late night session, led by Noel, 39.

Our source explained: "As everyone knows, Noel is a mad City fan and he likes to involve the club in all the big occasions in his life.

"He would've loved to have his reception at the old ground, Maine Road, because he has great memories of performing there - but the new stadium is impressive."

Let's hope brother Liam, 34, doesn't provide too many fireworks at the bash.

He did last night when he showed up at his elder sibling's Bonfire Night party with $6,000 worth of Catherine wheels and rockets.

Those brothers eh? There are always sparks between them...

WHAT in the name of - insert deity of choice here - is Alex Curran, 24, wearing? The frilly monstrosity makes the style icon WAG look frumpy.
Lexie, her six-month-old daughter with Liverpool skipper Stevie Gerrard, 26, was more stylish in her winter white as they arrived to see his mum marry in Southport.
Ah well, maybe she doesn't like her in-laws and was trying to ruin the pictures.

HAVE YOU GOT SOME JUICY GOSSIP FOR US?

SPOTTED

IN London: Donny Tourette paying a lot of attention to a petite beauty at All Bar One near Notting Hill Gate; Natasha Kaplinsky discarding the bread from her sandwich at The Defectors Weld, Shepherd's Bush; Julian Barratt wandering down Chalk Farm Road in Camden; Ralf Little walking past Goodge Street station.

HUSH HUSH

WHICH rock chick is losing friends because of her approach to hygiene? She thinks she's being rock 'n' roll by regarding the shower with as much suspicion as she does the bus world of pop. A pretence of scruffiness would be far more sensible. Apparently the stench of this little lady is starting to drive her mates mad...

Picture: WENN

Scarlett's magic

SCARLETT Johansson showed off in vintage style at the premier of The Prestige yesterday. The gorgeous Oscar winner, 21, wore a 1920s style ivory dress as she walked the red carpet in London's Leicester Square with co-star Hugh Jackman, 38. In the flick Jackman plays a magician. But there was no doubt who supplied the magic last night...

THE attempts by Peaches Geldof to get noticed grow ever more audacious by the day. Just as it looks like she's run out of romantic scandals to create, she's taken to hanging with drag queens. The 17-year-old took long-suffering boyfriend Fred Les, 19, along to a Much 2 Much club night along with this Pete Burns lookie likie. But she didn't want to be photographed, oh, heavens no...

QUICKIES...

SHAZNEY Lewis says she's so pleased to be working with her All Saints bandmates again because they still had so much to offer when they split. Shaz, 30, said: "However much we fell out where the friendship was concerned, musically we were still in a good place. There was no point in musically ruining what went before." Let's hope they don't do that now...

QUICKIES...

MISCHA Barton is the latest celebrity to criticise the size zero culture... The 20-year-old, who looks as though she couldn't spell pie let alone eat one, said: "It's so wrong to try and stifle womanly curves, it shouldn't be promoted. "This unhealthy look should be abandoned." Pots, kettles etc.

GHETTO GIRL'S NUMBER IS UP

OH the cruelty of fame. One minute you're descending corrugated stairs to a chorus of hysterical yelps in front of the nation and, then, you're nobody. Just ask Big Brother's self-styled ghetto princess Aisleyne Horgan-Wallace, 27. The blonde tried to use her new-found notoriety to get into the golden circle at P Diddy's party for his Press Play album. In a dress that can only be described as having a gynaeco-logical appeal, she headed to the London's uber-glam Paper club. But 36-year-old Diddy's scouts failed to hand her a number to get into his inner sanctum. (Is anyone else reminded of the deli counter at Sainsbury's? It's obviously how he gets fresh meat.) Undeterred Ash even tried to wrestle a ticket from one (un)lucky recipient - and failed, miserably. Ah well, love, you've still got your dignity.

WHY do past stars like Take That, All Saints, East 17 and Five think that reuniting is wise?

I love ABBA - they are the soundtrack to my life, but I agree with them completely.

Reuniting would surely subtract magic from their legendary status.

But chiefly, I just hope that this mounting trend doesn't encourage a reunion of the most overrated, arrogant group ever - those vocal dunces The Spice Girls.

PREETI NASTY

Newcomer gets a slap

EastEnders

by KATIE BEGLEY
NEW girl Preeti Choraria is welcomed to Walford with a bitch slap from feisty Stacey Slater.

The pint-sized beautician gets a stinging slap across the face from mouthy Stacey (Lacey Turner, 18) when she discovers that Preeti has slipped between the sheets with her brother Sean.

Preeti – played by Babita Pohoomull – is stunned by the attack because she has no idea Sean (Rob Kazinsky, 22) is engaged to Stacey's mate Ruby (Louise Lytton, 17).

In an exclusive chat with the Daily Star the 25-year-old actress said: "Preeti arrives in Walford after Max Branning poaches her from another salon.

"She's really sweet and naive and sees the best in everyone. She looks at Sean and thinks 'wow he's pretty cute' and she can't believe he's interested in her.

"It's not long before Sean has sweet-talked her into bed. But Preeti is horrified when she finds out Sean is engaged. And she can't believe it when she gets a slap."

But the actress, who grew up in Bangkok, Thailand, was gutted she didn't get up close and personal with Rob Kazinsky.

She added: "When I knew Sean and Preeti were going to get together I was really excited. So I was gutted when I realised we never actually get to kiss!

"You never see the two together, you just know she's upstairs in his bed."

● Fans can watch the drama unfold on Thursday November 16 at 7.30pm.

BACK ON SONG: Jodi

DEBBIE Dean's shock return for her family reunion will set pulses racing this week.

to be a singer but returns in time for the re-opening of the burnt Dog pub on Friday, 6.30pm.

A source said: "She's a fave with fans and they will not be disappointed to see her."

SOAP WATCH What's on this week

EASTENDERS

- Billy finds Honey has left him and baby Petal.
- Mickey thumps love rat Rob after discovering he has a wife.

EMMERDALE

- After confessing Peter is not really her son, Edna pulls out all the stops to make up with her sister.

- Marlon's horrified when his family get chicken pox.

HOLLYOAKS

- Clare gets up close and personal with Warren.
- Will goes head to head with Jessica to become editor of the student newspaper.

CORRIE

- Cilla raises Fizz's suspicions over a phone call.
- Audrey and Bill's trip to the dogs ends in passion.
- We incorrectly ran a story last week stating bosses were planning on filming a story about dogging involving Tracy Barlow and Charlie Stubbs.

One of our usually reliable sources was misinformed and we now accept Coronation Street never intended to use such sordid storylines in the show.

HE'S BEEN SHOT AT, BLOWN UP AND TORTURED.
AND THAT'S BEFORE BREAKFAST.

A special fried Rice

AN effigy of US security chief Condoleezza Rice - dressed as Wonder Woman - was burned at a Bonfire Night event in Lewes, East Sussex. Organisers of the event chose the 51-year-old ally of President George Bush "for her leading role in the Iraq War".

The 10ft tall effigy held a small chess model of Prime Minister Tony Blair, 53, in her hand.

An effigy of Pope Paul V - a co-conspirator in Guy Fawkes' plot to blow up the Houses of Parliament in 1605 - was also burned, left.

Exploding fridge kills bonfire dad

by LISA MCCARTHY

A DAD died in front of his young son when a fridge put in a bonfire exploded and hit him on the head.

John Millard, 40, was killed instantly at the family bonfire party on Saturday night.

Fire chiefs are investigating the cause of his death. Alan Pellowe, Area Commander for South Birmingham Fire Service, said: "It seems that the men were putting used fireworks onto the fire."

"It may be the case that one of the fireworks hadn't gone off properly the first time and it exploded when it was thrown into the flames. Fire investigators have also found remnants of a fridge in the fire at Bilston, Wolverhampton."

Tribute

"One of the compressors may have exploded."

John's brother-in-law Steve paid tribute to a "hard-working, kind man" and said the family was devastated.

"It had been such a happy occasion; a really good bonfire night which we were all enjoying when this had to go and happen," he said. "We are all absolutely devastated. Our family is inconsolable."

"John's eight-year-old son was there too with his dad. I can't get over the fact that he was here when his dad was killed. I don't know how he'll get over it."

ASHES: Investigators check debris

● A 15-year-old youth has died following a suspected arson attack in Barnsley, south Yorks. Adam Stringer was found dead in his bedroom on Friday morning. It's believed fireworks were thrown into the house. A 14-year-old boy was last night being questioned by detectives.

OWN THIS VW CAMPERVAN FOR PENNIES

By 7pm tonight! Lowest unique bid wins

YOUR Daily Star is giving you another chance to pay pennies for your dream VW Campervan. In our auction with a difference, it's not the highest bidder who drives away with the fantastic prize, it's the Daily Star reader who makes the LOWEST UNIQUE bid. This fantastic van could be yours by 7pm tonight.

HOW TO ENTER

- Choose a bid which you think might be the lowest unique bid. You can pick a bid amount from as little as 1p to £1,000.
 - Your bid must be sent to us in pence format. For example, £5.25 would be 525 or £10.60 would be 1060 in pence.
 - TEXT: Send a text message that starts with the word BID. Then leave a space and enter your bid in pence. For example, if you bid £1.20, your message would look like this: BID 120. Send this message to 88100.
 - TO CALL: Dial 0906 751 3078 and just follow the instructions.
- And remember - all you pay for is the phone call, not the amount you bid.
- You will receive a text telling you whether your bid has been successful. We will then also send you a FREE text message if your bid status changes.
- The winner will be the person with the lowest unique bid registered when the auction ends at 7pm tonight.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS
TEXTS cost £1.50 each plus your normal standard message rate. Calls cost 75p/min from a BT landline. Calls last approximately 2mins and 30secs. Minimum bid is 1p, maximum bid is £1,000. You must be 18 or over to enter. Product may vary from that pictured. The lowest unique bid at 7pm on November 6, 2006 must buy the campervan at that bid price. The lowest unique bid will be a binding legal contract for the sale of the campervan by Northern & Shell to the bidder. Northern & Shell's record of each bid is the official record of bids. Northern & Shell and suppliers will not be held responsible for any breakdowns in communication systems or networks that could result in a bid not being registered or a text message not being received. The successful bidder will be contacted after the close time and must agree to publicity. For all SMS services, you may receive other related promotional offers/services. To stop receiving send STOP to 88100. The winner will be liable for insurance and road tax and must provide a valid insurance certificate for registration purposes before delivery. The competition is open to all UK residents aged 18 and over. The editor's decision is final. No cash alternative. Employees of Express Newspapers plc, its agents, wholesalers and retailers and/or their relations may not participate. Usual Daily Star terms and conditions apply. The winner will receive the prize within three months from the closing date of auction.

JOE MOTT'S HOT EDITED BY KIM DAWSON

BAD BLOOD: Ozzy

OZZY SPAT

OZZY and Sharon Osbourne have been banned from today's Classic Rock Awards as organisers feared a scuffle with ex-Black Sabbath singer Ronnie James Dio, 64. Dio, who will pick up the Metal Guru award, planned to go on tour with ex-Sabs Tony Iommi, 58, and bassist Geezer Butler, 57, using the Black Sabbath name, but were stopped by Oz, 57, and Shaz, 54. A source said: "They're now called Heaven and Hell - the Sabbath album Ronnie recorded after Ozzy left."

Bond babe Amy

007 woos Winehouse

Picture: AFP

JAZZ chanteuse Amy Winehouse is heading for the big screen - with James Bond bosses going gooey over her sultry tones.

The London lass, 23, has caught the ears of movie bosses who are keen to add her to the soundtrack to 38-year-old Daniel Craig's next outing as 007 after Casino Royale.

I reckon Amy would do a sterling job on a Bond theme and bring the 44-year-old movie series properly up to date.

Proud Amy told me: "We've been in contact with the James Bond people and hopefully that'll come off in the future."

It's certainly a rather brilliant time to be Amy Winehouse.

Back To Black, the follow-up to her Mercury-nominated debut album Frank, hit No.3 in the charts last night and the single Rehab is holding strong in the Top 10.

But while the country is loving the return of Amy, she reveals that she still gets shy when listening to her own music.

It gets worse if she's down the pub and has had a few.

She admitted: "I can't stand hearing my own music, so if it's getting late

FEISTY: Amy Winehouse

I'll put Rehab on the jukebox to get me out of the door."

Despite only releasing her comeback record last week, Amy is lining up another return to the studio, this time for what can only turn out to be a kick-ass collaboration of the finest feisty stars.

I can reveal Amy is planning to record a single with Lily Allen, 21, and Lady Sovereign, 20, who shares her manager. I can't wait.

MOTT

CONGRATS to Hot's favourite five-piece Girls Aloud for bagging their first No.1 album. The greatest hits of Cheryl, 23, Nicola, 21, Kimberley, 24, Sarah, 25, and Nadine, 21, has properly done the business.

SHOT

Shak's belly hot

TEMPERATURES soared in Guatemala City as Shakira and her belly came to town. The 29-year-old stuck to the "if it ain't broke, don't fix it" outfit and shook her booty to hits including chart-topper Hips Don't Lie.

At the other end of the scale, no one told Gnarts Barkley man Cee-Lo Green, 31, that Halloween was over. His freaky wig and costume nearly burned a hole in my eye socket as he gyrated at Manchester Apollo.

All royalties from the sale of this DVD go to the Wildlife Warriors Fund to help carry on Steve's critical work with endangered species, habitat protection and running his wildlife hospital. This special DVD release includes rare footage of interviews with Steve and his family on matters close to their hearts. A truly memorable DVD.

ELTON'S THE FK IT MAN

15 swear words a minute

STROPPY Elton John launched into a furious outburst at a concert - using the F-word 15 times in one minute.

The tantrum-throwing F-it Man staggered fans as he introduced a new track and got stuck into his record label. Elton, 59, said: "I'm going to play a song but I'm sure you haven't heard it because the f*s haven't promoted it."

"My record label isn't doing anything to help. F Universal."

He went on to claim that Universal Records hadn't spent "a dollar" promoting his new album The Captain And The Kid. The album slid down the charts after it was released in September. Elton stormed: "They're useless. Here's a message to Universal Records: Please drop me. Just let me go somewhere else."

One dismayed fan at the New York concert asked: "What is wrong with Sir Elton? He needs an ego check. What has got into him?" Despite his attack, insiders reckon the star won't get into trouble over his comments.

■ by LIZZIE CATT

A source said: "He gets away with it because he is Elton."

But his agent Gary Farrow said the tirade of abuse was meant as a joke.

Rude

He said: "I think you'll find it was tongue-in-cheek over the record company."

In 2004, Elton lost his rag at Taiwan airport, screaming at waiting journalists and photographers: "Rude vile pigs! Pigs! Pigs!"

At the Q Awards that year he laid into Madonna, sneering "Madonna, best fing live act? F off."

Hell of a date

LOTTO rapist forworth Hoare faces jail again after secretly joining an internet dating site.

Hoare, 53, who won £7million two years ago, was freed last year after serving 16 years of a life sentence for a catalogue of sex crimes.

He has been ordered to tell probation chiefs of potential contact with women, but he signed up to the dating website from his huge mansion in Northumberland.

A Home Office source said: "He's the blind date from hell."

Secret recipe

DINERS in some of Britain's top restaurants are unwittingly paying £100 or more for "boil in the bag" food.

Famous chefs like Raymond Blanc and Heston Blumenthal use the style of cooking called sous vide.

It involves vacuum packing meat, boiling it and then storing it in a fridge for up to two weeks.

Food writer Martin Isark said: "It will come as a shock to many diners in famous restaurants."
